

Introducing access control

Access control allows admin users with sufficient permissions to manage the admin users within a workspace, including adding new admin users, managing roles and permissions, and viewing and revoking active sessions.

To configure access control, sign into the Coro console and select Access Control from the Control Panel:

To learn more about access control, use the following links:

- Managing admin users
- Adding a new admin user
- Managing roles and permissions
- Reviewing active sessions