

Endpoint Security

The Coro Agent actively monitors user activity on endpoint devices, allowing the organization to enforce various security, compliance, and governance policies.

A summary of your endpoint devices is shown in the Endpoint Security dashboard panel:

