

Profile settings and password

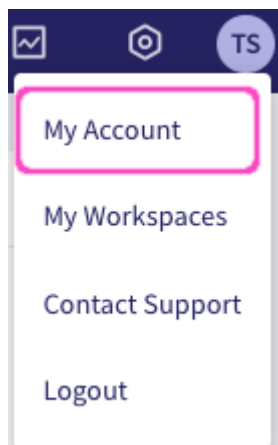

Use the User Profile settings page to manage your account details, such as:

- display name
- password
- login authentication
- email notifications

To view the User Profile settings page, log into the Coro console and select the User Profile icon in the toolbar (an avatar, typically set to your initials):

Then select My Account from the menu:

Coro displays the User Profile settings page: